

SAVE THE DATE! We hereby invite you as a startup to apply for participation at

Food Venture & Partnering Days, 3-4 of May in Gothenburg, Sweden

Presenting your start-up at the event will mean significant exposure to venture capitalists and industry from the food sector. Our mission is to give you a day full of inspiration and networking - for business and collaboration opportunities.

Participation is free for presenting start-ups, but based on selection. Please apply by www.b2match.eu/FVPD2017. Deadline for application is the 15th of march 2017, but the applications will be evaluated gradually, "first come, first served".

Your benefits will be

- Network with investors, industry, retail, public support actors and consultants.
- Access to the description of participating venture capitalists and industry prior to the event.
- One2One meetings with investors/industry.
- Conference binder and website visibility- a short description of your startup will be published.
- Free pitch training prior to the event, 6th of April, arranged in collaboration with Connect Sverige. Further info will be communicated to the selected start-ups.
